APPLICATION FOR TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

The above named Witness is a witness in the above pending criminal matter. Based on the facts set forth in the attached affidavit, there are reasonable grounds to believe that a temporary restraining order directed to the above named Respondent is needed because harassment of the above named Witness exists or such an order is necessary to prevent and restrain the commission of an offense under section 53a-151 of the general statutes or section 1 of public act 99-240.

For the reasons set forth in the attached affidavit, notice should not be required and there is a reasonable probability that the state will prevail on the merits.

EX PARTE TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER (If requested)

The foregoing Affidavit and Application for an Ex Parte Temporary Restraining Order having been presented to and been considered by the undersigned, a judge of the Superior Court, the undersigned (a) is satisfied therefrom that grounds exist to issue this Ex Parte Restraining Order, and (b) finds that said affidavit established that prior notice of the application should not be required and that there are reasonable grounds to believe that harassment of the above Witness in the above criminal case exists or that an order is necessary to prevent and restrain the commission of an offense under section 53a-151 of the general statutes or section 1 of public act 99-240, and that the state is likely to prevail on the merits of said application.

The Respondent named above is hereby ordered to:

- Refrain from imposing any restraint upon the person or liberty of the Witness.
- Refrain from threatening, harassing, assaulting, molesting or sexually assaulting the Witness.
- Refrain from entering the family dwelling, or any dwelling occupied by the Witness.
- The Court further orders (Specify:) _____

This restraining order shall remain in effect until: _____ (not to exceed 10 days) unless extended by order of the court, except that the order shall be automatically extended if the prosecutorial official files an application for a protective order pursuant to section 3 of public act 99-240, until such time as the court makes a decision on the issuance of such protective order.

The Applicant is ordered to forthwith file this Application and Order with the clerk of court.

NOTICE - HANDGUN RESTRICTIONS FOR PERSONS SUBJECT TO RESTRAINING OR PROTECTIVE ORDERS

If you are subject to a restraining or protective order issued by a court in a case involving the use, attempted use or threatened use of physical force against another person:

1. You are not eligible to receive a permit or eligibility certificate allowing you to carry a pistol or revolver (Connecticut General Statutes Sections 29-28(b)(6), 29-36f(b)(6));
2. Any permit or eligibility certificate which you now hold shall be revoked and you must surrender such permit or eligibility certificate to the authority that issued it within 5 days of being notified that it has been revoked. If you do not surrender such permit or eligibility certificate as required, you will be guilty of a class C misdemeanor which is punishable by a fine of up to five hundred dollars or imprisonment of up to three months or both (Connecticut General Statutes Sections 29-32 and 29-36i);
3. You must transfer all pistols and revolvers which you possess to a person who is eligible to possess them or surrender them to the Commissioner of Public Safety within two business days of becoming subject to such order. If you do not do so, you will be subject to a fine of up to five thousand dollars or imprisonment of up to five years or both (Connecticut General Statutes Sections 29-36k and 29-33); and
4. If you possess any pistol or revolver after you have had notice of such order and an opportunity to be heard, you will be guilty of criminal possession of a pistol or revolver. Criminal possession of a pistol or revolver is a class D felony which is punishable by a fine of up to five thousand dollars or a term of imprisonment of up to five years or both (Connecticut General Statutes Section 53a-217c(5)).
